

Dianne Boazman, MSW, LCSW, CMC

Betty Bartels Landreaux, LCSW, CMC, RG

Betty and Dianne, both Master's level Social Workers, founded Care Management Solutions in 1991, providing geriatric care management and guardianship services. They specialize in assessment, family consultation and tailored care for elderly and disabled individuals.

In 2001, Betty and Dianne partnered with Jo Ann White, RN to expand their service offerings by launching Home Care Solutions – a non-medical sitter/companion service specializing in Alzheimer's home care.

Both Betty and Dianne are Louisiana Licensed Clinical Social Workers and members of the National Academy of Certified Care Managers. Dianne is a Past President of the National Association of Professional Geriatric Care Managers and was recently re-elected to their national board of directors.

Locally, Dianne is an active member of the Rotary Club of New Orleans, currently serving on the board. She is also a past-president and current member of the New Orleans Women's Professional Council.

Betty is past president and currently sits on the Board of Directors of Louisiana Guardianship Service. As a Registered Guardian, Betty serves as a court-appointed guardian for the elderly or brain-injured individuals at the request of the Jefferson Parish Court system.

Betty and Dianne taught graduate coursework in gerontology as Adjunct Professors with Tulane's School of Social Work and are frequent presenters on the topics of caring for aging parents, long-term care planning, and specialized care giving for those with Alzheimer's disease or other dementias.
